

PRN

PRINCIPAL RESIDENCY NETWORK

Center for Leadership and Educational Equity, CLEE
304 Pearl Street, Suite 100
Providence, RI

www.clee-ri.org
Kirsten LaCroix
PRN Director
kirstenlacroix@clee-ri.org
(401) 523-3688

A non-profit organization dedicated to providing leaders with professional learning and support to create equitable outcomes for all students.

94%

obtain leadership positions after graduating from the PRN from 2001-2017

The only Rhode Island residency-based administrator preparation program. Awarded Approval with Distinction, the highest approval rating by the RI Department of Education.

PARTNERS

- Johnson & Wales University
- US Department of Education
- Rhode Island Foundation
- RI Department of Education
- School Reform Initiative

THE PRINCIPAL RESIDENCY NETWORK IS A PROGRAM OF THE CENTER FOR LEADERSHIP AND EDUCATIONAL EQUITY

A residency-based PK-12 Building Administrator certification program dedication to the development of principals who champion educational equity through leadership of innovative schools.

RESEARCH- BASED DESIGN AND PRACTICES

LEARNING BY DOING/AUTHENTIC PRACTICE

- Intensive residency
- Problem-based learning
- Reflection

LEARNING IN A COMMUNITY OF PRACTICE

- Cohort structure
- High quality mentoring

PERSONALIZED LEARNING

- Individualized curriculum
- Standards-based focused on equity
- Performance-based assessment

PRN PATHWAYS

- Classic (1 year)
- Extended Time (2 years)
- Leader of Record (2 years with option for leadership role in year 2)

Growing Leadership Statewide: Between 2001-2017, the 172 PRN Graduates have trained and/or been hired in 97% of RI towns and cities.

